MAYSVILLIAN NAMED CHEWING TOBACCO; GIVES TESTIMONY

Mr. James F. Summers, Who Named Famous Brand of Chewing Tobacco In 1897, Is Sought In Legal Fight Now In Progress.

Hon. R. B. Kavanaugh, of New York City, chief patent attorney for the American Tobacco Company, was in Maysville yesterday for the purpose of taking a deposition of Mr. James F. Summers, of the Kentucky Bottling Company and this deposition may settle a big law suit and controversy which has been on between the American Tobacco Company and the Beechnut Packing Company, of New York, over the ownership of the brand "Beechnut."

The New York Packing company contends that they own the brand "Beechnut" and therefore have the right to use that brand in connection with tobacco while the American Tobacco Company contends that they own this brand as applied to tobacco.

This big controversy may be settled by Mr. Summers' testimony as the Maysville man is the person who gave the tobacco its name back in 1897 when General Superintendent for the Westinghouse Tobacco Company at Louisville and on the strength of the fact that they owned and used the brand before the New York Packing Company used it, the American Tobacco Company claims ownership.

This famous brand of chewing tobacco has become universally popular and the American Tobacco Company is making a hard fight to retain the ownership of the brand.

WOODLAND MUSIC.

In the shady woodland places, Where the quiet little faces Of the elves

Peep from out the deep green darkness And the overshadowing leaves And the matted sky of leaves— What a maddest born of June, What a wonder fancy weaves. In the shady woodland places, Where the tenuous sylvan tune Pipes forever to a magic, Neither sad, nor sweet, nor tragic, Neither gay, nor light, nor airy, Just the phantom of a fairy Singing in a summer swoon To the echo of a melody, Called June June, June.

KENTUCKY'S DEATH RATE CONSIDERABLY DECREASED IN YEAR

Deaths From All Preventable Diseases Show Quite a Decrease From Last Year.

The State Board of Health announces the mortality statistics for the State of Kentucky for the year 1919 as follows:

Estimated population, 2,408,547.
Important ages	Total White Col.
Infants under 1 year	4626 4028 598
1 to 5 years	2629 2286 343
65 years and over	7377 6487 890
Total deaths (still-births excluded)	30900 25818 5082
Tuberculosis, lungs	3459 2675 784
Other tuberculosis	445 365 784
Pneumonia	2716 2170 546
Whooping cough	207 172 35
Diphtheria-croup	352 339 14
Serf fever	48 47 1
Measles	387 346 41
Scarlet fever	205 196 9
Typhoid fever	636 527 109
Diarrhoea-enteritis
Under 2 years	997 880 117
Over 2 years	754 635 119
Hookworm disease	3 3 0
Influenza (grippe)	4591 4013 578
Puerperal septicemia	152 131 21
Cancer	1192 1059 131
Syphilis	1599 1336 263
Pellagra	109 102 7
Infantile paralysis	12 9 3
Malaria	73 55 18
Spills	92 54 38
Stillbirths total	92 54 38
Death rate per 1,000 population 12.8.

A marked decline is noted in the death rate from all preventable diseases, with the exception of diphtheria for which there has been an increase over 1917 and 1918.

Diphtheria is one of the few diseases for which there is a specific treatment, and if given early enough, and in large enough doses, is a practical specific in almost every case. Increase in the death rate means that physicians are not called early enough, or that they are not taking advantage of the cheaper anti-toxin kept on hand by every County Health Officer in the State and supplied free to the indigent by practically every Fiscal Court in the State.

It is gratifying to observe the decrease in the death rate from tuberculosis. This marked reduction is due to the active cooperation between the Kentucky Tuberculosis Association and the State Board of Health, and especially to the activities of the various local health organizations, the increase in the number of all-time health departments and public health nurses.

CHAUTAUQUA SPEAKER TELLS OF WORTH OF MEETINGS

Canadian Warrior Addresses Small Group of Interested Chautauqua Boosters Wednesday Evening.

What the crowd who heard Captain S. N. Dancy at the Farm Bureau building on Wednesday evening lacked in numbers they made up in enthusiasm. The captain who is the first advance man for the big 1920 Chautauqua, entertained the small crowd in discussing the worth of an annual chautauqua to a community in its many ways.

His talk was greatly enjoyed and the chautauqua workers were very enthusiastic about making this year's meeting the most successful yet at the close of his talk. The sale of season tickets is very encouraging but greater effort will be made in the country districts.

Captain Dancy was compelled to leave Mayville last night to make an engagement at Irontown, O., this evening but he will return here during the latter part of the week and start the big advertising campaign which will reach all sections of the county.

On account of the failure of the chautauqua folders to arrive here, he was unable to announce the program for the week but this will be announced within a day or two.

It will surprise you when you see the quality of these children's gingham dresses at 98 cents and $1.98. Mayville Suit & Dry Goods Company.

FLEMING COUNTY MAN DROWNS IN THE OHIO RIVER

Mr. Carr McCarthy Drowns in River at Oregonia, Ohio, Tuesday Evening—Body Taken to Mt. Carmel For Burial.

The body of Mr. Carr McCarthy, youngest son of Mrs. Kate McCarthy, of Mt. Carmel, and a cousin of Mrs. R. A. Carr, of this city, was brought here this afternoon from the home of his uncle, Mr. John Will Goddard, of Oregonia, Ohio, and taken directly to the Mt. Carmel cemetery in Fleming county, where burial was made this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mr. McCarthy, who is well known in Mayville, has been at the home of his uncle, Mr. Goddard, former sheriff of Fleming county, for some time and was in swimming in the river near the uncle's home. It is supposed that he cramped and sank to his death. The body was soon recovered and prepared for burial.

The young man was 33 years of age and had spent the greater part of his life in and about Mt. Carmel where he was born. He had often visited relatives in Mayville and had many friends here. He was a cousin of the late John Fox, Jr., famous Kentucky novelist.

The sorrowing mother and all bereaved relatives have the sympathy of their many friends in this very sad and untimely death.

COUNCIL EXPECTED TO FIX TAX LEVY AT $1.55 FRIDAY

Councilmen Learn That Schools Must Have Funds They Originally Asked For.

It is understood that an adjourned meeting of City Council will likely be called for Friday evening to fix the tax levy for the next fiscal year and from Councilmen it is learned that in all probability that levy will be $1.55 per $100, which is an increase of five cents on the hundred dollars over last year's levy.

The controversy over whether Mayville is a third or fourth class city makes no difference in the amount of money the city schools should receive, it has been learned except that if Mayville is a third instead of a fourth class city, the schools can ask for even more money than they can if the city is a fourth class city.

The Councilmen seem to be of the opinion that there is now no question to decide except to assess for the use of the Board of Education enough to make the amount they have asked for in their budget and then to cut the city's operating expenses just as closely as possible in order to meet the increase cost of everything within the five cent increase.

Mayor Russell was out of the city today and it could not be learned whether or not the proposed meeting would be called for Friday night but it seemed to be the opinion of Councilmen that it would be held then.

IT WASN'T HERDOLL.

Friday afternoon last two men were here in a big auto who claimed to have come from Vanceburg and to be on their way to Morehead to look after buying timber. The younger of the two men answered the description in most particulars of the millionaire draft-evader, Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, and after the couple had left for Owensville some of our people telephoned to Owensville to have them held up, which was done. But before taking them to jail the young man who was suspected asked his captors to line up and have their pictures taken, and otherwise had a good deal of fun out of them. An examination of the young man convinced the authorities that he was not the man wanted and the party was released. The probability is that the young man is a newspaper correspondent who very strongly resembles Bergdoll, and that he will write up the experiences of the man who resembles Bergdoll in traveling through Kentucky, which would be a pretty good stunt. — Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.

RIVER MYSTERY.

Cincinnati and Covington police were asked Thursday to try to help identify the body of a man found in the Ohio River Sunday at Hamilton Landing, Boone county, Ky.

N. E. Riddell, Boone county judge, said the man was about 25 years old, 5 feet 8 inches tall, weighed 130 pounds and was dressed in a dark suit, tan low-cut shoes with rubber heels and soles. Two upper teeth were crowned with gold. A picture of a girl was in one of the man's pockets.

"DUD" RUMMANS FOUND DEAD IN BED AT HOME YESTERDAY

Former State Senator from This District, Long Resident of Mayville, Is Found Dead in Bed at Cincinnati Wednesday.

Joel Dudley Rummans, better known in this section as "Dud" Rummans, was found dead in bed at his home at 615 Richmond street, Cincinnati, Wednesday morning. Heart failure was the cause of his death according to Coroner Bauer, of Cincinnati, who made a careful examination. The body was taken in charge by S. D. Grimes, of Cincinnati, a lifelong friend of the deceased, he having no surviving relatives.

"Dud" Rummans was engaged in the insurance business in Mayville for many years, being the District Agent of the Equitable Life Insurance Company, and was engaged in the insurance business in Cincinnati at the time of his death.

He was 70 years of age and for many years quite a prominent Republican politician in this city. In 1895 he defeated the late Thomas A. Davis for the Republican nomination for State Senator from the Mason-Lewis district and was elected to that office by an overwhelming majority over his Democratic opponent.

Mr. Rummans was a native of Lewis county and after a residence of many years in Mayville moved from this city to Cincinnati where he has since been engaged in the insurance business.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

CALVIN COOLIDGE, MASS.
For Vice President.

THE PEOPLE'S VERDICT ON THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

We naturally expect that strong Democratic localities will support the policies of a Democratic Administration from purely political motives, although higher motives should govern. However, it is found that the people are actuated by patriotic motives as against political motives, while the politicians disregard patriotism for partyism. The illustration may be found in the results in Missouri and Georgia.

In Missouri the people of his district nominated Senator Reed as a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in opposition to the policies of President Wilson, especially on the League of Nations issue. The Missouri State Convention refused to abide by the will of the people of Senator Reed's district and voted to send a solid delegation to the national convention in support of the President. The politicians overruled the people.

In Georgia the people also voted in opposition to the Presidential policies. Hon. Thomas E. Watson, without making a speech or conducting a canvass of any kind, simply announcing himself as a candidate for the presidential nomination and stating his views on the issues, received the highest number of votes. The other candidates voted for were Senator Hoke Smith and Attorney General Palmer.

There is no question about the character of the victory. Mr. Watson became a candidate for the sole purpose of opposing President Wilson's policies. In a letter to the Sun and The New York Herald, which was published in that paper on the 24th instant, Mr. Watson wrote as follows:

"My victory over Attorney General Palmer and Senator Hoke Smith was due to the fact that I made a straight and fight against President Wilson and the League of Nations. . . . I stood for the restoration of American liberties. . . . I declared for Americanism as measured by the Declaration of Independence, by the Constitution, by Washington's Farewell Address and by Jefferson's first inaugural. . . . On this platform and without stirring from home, I carried the largest popular vote and the largest number of counties. It was a victory not for me personally, but for the principles for which I stood."

MINORITY RULE MUST END.

Prof. John Bassett Moore, former counselor of the State Department, favors changes in our governmental machinery that would limit the Presidential term to two years, permit cabinet officers to participate in debate in both the Senate and House, and remove the immunity of the President from interrogation when he appears before Congress to deliver an address. Mr. Moore believes such drastic innovations, involving amendment to the Constitution itself, are warranted by the experience the country has been through in the past four years. Not only was Mr. Wilson elected President in 1916 by a minority of the popular vote, about 42 per cent., but his policies were emphatically repudiated in 1918 in the face of his urgent appeal for support. But notwithstanding those facts the President stayed in office, constantly engaged in trying to force upon the people propositions which they did not want and which they had rejected by their votes.

"The spectacle of the avowed head of a minority party for full half his term," declares Mr. Moore, "making appointments to the highest offices of state, vetoing measures passed by the actual representatives of the people, and incidentally conducting the entire foreign relation of the country, is an anomaly in politics furnished chiefly, if not exclusively, by the United States."

"IN THE DAY'S NEWS."

Hon. Thomas A. Crerar, who today enters upon his forty-fifth year, is one of the outstanding figures in Canadian politics. In recent months he has been especially prominent through his leadership of the so-called agrarian movement in the Dominion. Mr. Crerar was born in Molesworth, Ont., and early in life began to take an active interest in politics. When the Unionist Government was formed during the war he was offered and accepted the post of Minister of Agriculture at Ottawa. In 1919, however, he resigned his place in the cabinet and left the party in consequence of the budget proposals of that year. Since then he has campaigned over a large section of the Dominion in the work of organizing what has been styled by its adherents the National Progressive party, and of which he is the recognized leader.

HOW TO RAISE MONEY ON YOUR LIBERTY BONDS

Not Necessary to Part Title With Your Best Investment—Use Them As Collateral.

As a general rule it is bad business to borrow money. However, when a man needs money he might better borrow on his assets than sell them. In fact, that is just what a business man does when he pledges his properties or whatever of value he may have as collateral for a loan. Then he pays back the loan as soon as he can in order to obtain full control of his assets again.

Apparently, there are thousands of persons in America today who do not understand a simple business transaction. Having bought Liberty Bonds and later having real or fancied need of money, they sold their bonds, sometimes for less than they could have borrowed on them. They sold them at a loss.

Don't touch your Liberty Bonds if you can help it. However, if sickness or other ill luck overtakes you and you must have money, go to any bank with your bonds and borrow the money on them. Don't go to a pawn broker of a bond "shark." Liberty Bonds are sterling collateral. Any bank will lend money on them—more money in fact, than they will lend on nearly any other security. You will find it no trouble at all. With Liberty Bonds in your pocket you won't have to submit to any investigation of your affairs.

Having borrowed the money, the urge will be to pay it back. Many banks permit you to cancel such a loan by installment payments. When you have paid up the loan you will get your hands back with the interest coupons attached. In other words, you will have met your obligations and still have your assets intact.

Holds your bonds. Borrow if you have to, but hold them.

BRILLIANT BRITISH ORATOR IS COMING

FATHER WATT.

You who fought during the war, and you who worked at home during the war—did you get the vision of two great nations, alike in speech and thought, with a common history behind them, fighting the same battle against the same enemy?

Did England seem a bit closer to America as a result of the common struggle against the enemy?

Whether the vision was yours or not, what Father Watt, British captain and diplomat, has to say, touches your life. Whatever your reaction to the "Empire Island," you cannot ignore the closeness of its interests with our own.

Father Watt, whose days in the trenches were spent shoulder to shoulder with the "Tommys" he loved, and whose name and face is dear to all England, will speak here on the first evening of Chantanooga.

A project to scientifically explore the resources of the Pacific Ocean will be discussed in the fourth annual meeting of the Pacific division of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, which is to begin its sessions in Seattle today under the auspices of the University of Washington.

Do You Want Your Kidneys Examined?

Kidney troubles are getting more common every day. Government health bureau figures say deaths from this cause are 72 per cent more than 80 years ago.

Anybody who suffers constant backache, who has dizzy spells, headache and urinary disorders should suspect kidney weakness. Overworked kidneys must have a rest. Take things easier; live more carefully. Take a good kidney remedy to build the kidneys up again.

But be sure to get Doan's Kidney Pills—the oldest, the most widely used, the best recommended of all kidney pills, now in use all over the civilized world. Ask your neighbor. Don't experiment with your kidneys. Thousands have already tested Doan's. You have their experience to go by. Plenty of cases right here in Maysville. Here's one:

Mrs. W. A. Schatzmann, 605 E. Second St., Maysville, says: "From the benefit I have received from Doan's Kidney Pills, which I buy at J. J. Wood & Son's Drug Store, I have every reason to recommend them. When my kidneys have been irregular in action, or I have suffered from weakness and lameness in the small of my back, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills. They have always proven sufficient to quickly cure an attack."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Schatzmann had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

The only difference in this wonderful Coffee and the goods we sold years ago, it hasn't the kick.

MANY STATES ARE PROMOTING WELFARE OF THEIR CHILDREN

Thirty-eight States and the District of Columbia Carry On Better Babies Campaign.

Thirty-eight States, the District of Columbia, and Hawaii, are actively engaged in measures to promote child welfare, according to a bulletin issued by the Children's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor. This bulletin summarizes briefly the work done during Children's Year and contains suggestions for follow-up work.

"Throughout almost the entire country," says the report, "there is an obvious need of the continuance of certain activities which may be said to constitute a Children's Year follow-up program." Among the important measures mentioned are better birth registration, the establishment of health stations, weighing and measuring stations, open-air classes, nutritional clinics and other measures for the protection and development of school children, protection from filthiness and premature work by Back-to-School and Stay-in-School campaigns, public provision for wholesome play and recreation under trained leadership of commercial amusements, study by each community of local needs and resources as related to the care of handicapped children, the promotion of new legislation for the care and protection of children based on a study of present laws and local needs, and a study of the child welfare standards adopted by the Children's Bureau Conference on Standards of Child Welfare held in May and June of last year.

It is hoped, the bulletin states, that the child welfare standards will prove a strong influence in concentrating public attention on the need for federal action to protect the health of mothers and children. Interest in the standards has already resulted in the formation of a national permanent committee to establish physical standards for children entering employment, and in measures in a large number of States to secure better legislation for children born out of wedlock.

The bulletin contains two maps, one showing States included in the birth registration area in April, 1920, and one showing States organized for child welfare work and cooperating with the Children's Bureau in follow-up measures.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Covington, Kentucky, May 10th, 1920. For some time past it has been known to many of my Republican friends throughout the state that I would be a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator.

I now desire to make public announcement of that fact. I keenly appreciate the responsibility and importance of this high position, and, in the event of my election, I will give to the duties of this office the best there is in me and will represent the people of Kentucky and of the United States to the best of my ability.

I desire, also, to take advantage of this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to the many Republicans throughout the state who have, without solicitation on my part, so kindly and generously offered me their support.

NOTABLE CAST OF PLAYERS FOR NEW FARRAR PICTURE

Milton Sills, Tom Santschi and Hansard Short in "The Stronger Vow."

A cast of especial excellence surrounds Geroldine Farrar in "The Stronger Vow," her newest Goldwyn Picture, which comes to the Pastime Theater Thursday. As in her previous Goldwyn productions, Milton Sills, distinguished in many Broadway productions before he elected to appear in the silent drama, is the diva's leading man with a role more forceful than any in which he has yet appeared.

Tom Santschi, the veteran screen player, whose brilliant performances contributed not a little to the success of Miss Farrar's recent screen triumphs, is once more seen in a part commensurate with his ability. He is remembered for his brilliant work in "The Hell Cat" and "Shadow," Santschi eclipses his characterizations in both productions by his skilled portrayal of the villain in "The Stronger Vow." Santschi was a pronounced favorite with picture lovers long before many of the present-day screen celebrities began work in the cinema.

John Davidson, who can always be counted on for a sterling performance in character parts, is making his first appearance as a Goldwyn player in a role admirably fitted to his talents. Davidson has been seen in scores of worth-while screen productions, including "An Allen," "Power of Decision," "The Wall Between," "A Million o' Minutes," "The Green Cloak," "The Danger Signal" and "The Pawn of Fate."

An important role in "The Stronger Vow" is in the capable hands of Hansard Short, who distinguished himself by his clever performance with Geroldine Farrar in "The Turn of the Wheel," her first Goldwyn picture. Probably best remembered for his character of the young brother in "Peg o' My Heart," Short achieved a big reputation as a screen player before making his first appearance with Miss Farrar. His performance in "The Turn of the Wheel" won marked commendation from the famous star.

Katet Lester, high in the estimation of motion picture devotees for her grand dame characterizations, also is well cast in the new Farrar production. Miss Lester gave a splendid account of herself in "The Social Secretary" and "Today," and recently played a prominent part in "A Man and His Money," Tom Moore's fourth Goldwyn vehicle.

His lecture will be part of the program of the last day of Chautauqua this year.

NICHOLAS MAN FAILS IN SUICIDE ATTEMPT.

Carlisle, Ky., June 17.—Henry Flynn farmer, residing on the Maysville and Lexington pike about three miles from Carlisle, attempted suicide last night by drinking a liquid which he claimed was carbolic acid.

It is believed that the carbolic acid or other liquid had been diluted, for Mr. Flynn was relieved to some extent by the physicians, who arrived soon after he made the attempt to kill himself. He is somewhat improved today. The physicians say that the chances for his recovery are fair.

No cause was assigned for the attempt at suicide. Mr. Flynn has a wife and two children. He has been successful as a tobacco tenant.

LEXINGTON GIRL PROTESTS INNOCENCE OF ANY IMPLICATION

Lexington Stenographer Questioned About Elwell Murder Says She Knows Nothing.

Lexington, Ky., June 17.—Here in Lexington there is a pretty girl stenographer who bears an excellent reputation and whose family and connections are all good people living in this and adjoining counties. The girl's first name is Anne. Her last name isn't given because she claims to be the victim of a circumstance and innocent of wrong doing.

During the recent spring race meeting she was introduced to Joseph H. Elwell by one of her married women friends — one of the several society women who had entertained the whilst expert while he was here with his horses.

"I thought Mr. Elwell a gentleman," she stated today. "I was told he was, and he treated me as though he were a gentleman. I was told that he was not married. At the races one afternoon I accepted an invitation to his box, and on another occasion I dined with him. He was very nice. I became ill and he sent me flowers. When I recovered he had departed for New York and I wrote him a note of thanks. I received his response the day after he was killed."

This young woman's father is a man of very moderate means, who resides in an adjoining county, and she has a brother who is employed in a neighboring town.

The impression here is that the New York authorities, having found the letter acknowledging the flowers and signed Anne, have seized upon the circumstance to divert attention from their movements in seeking the slayer in Elwell's own circle.

MANY TEACHERS FAIL IN STATE EXAMINATION

Fifty Per Cent of Teachers Taking Examination in State Under New Plan.

Frankfort, Ky., June 17.—Of the 2,402 teachers who took the examination for teachers' certificates, 1,182 failed to pass, 541 were granted first-class certificates and 679 second-class certificates. The figures show that 51 per cent. passed the examination and 49 per cent. failed.

The failure of so large a per cent. is due to the fact that teachers are deprived of scholarships in training schools. Heretofore rural teachers have been so poorly paid for their services that it has been impossible for them to receive training in teachers' training schools.

Progressive states have adopted the plan of bringing the training school to the teacher by providing one year teachers' training course in each county. While Kentucky is far behind along this line the time is not far distant, according to Superintendent of Public Instruction George Colvin, when teachers' training courses will be established in a high school in each county in the state.

HARDING'S PRESCRIPTION IS WORK! WORK! WORK!!!

Washington, June 17.—Warren G. Harding, Republican Presidential nominee, is prescribing the same medicine for himself that he proposes for the public. It's: "Work, work, work—that's what this country needs most."

He will have his conference with National Chairman Will H. Hays here on Monday. He announces that one mistake he will certainly avoid will be that of conducting his campaign on a basis of over-confidence.
